Santa fe Weekly Gazette.

TERMS. WEEKLY- $5 a year, payable invariably in advance; single copies 12 1-2 cents. Advertisements, $1 50 per square of ten lines for the first insertion, and $1 for every subsequent insertion.

J. W. REED, ATTORNEY AT LAW,

WILL practice in the Courts of Santa Fe, and adjoining counties; and will attend to criminal business in any part of the Territory. Santa Fe, Sept. 25, 1852.—0mo

PEBRAJEA HOUSE,

INDEPENDENCE, MISSOURI.

B. W. TODD.

I have removed from the "Noland House," to the "Nebraska House," in Independence, Missouri. The Nebraska House is a large new building, and has recently been much improved by attentions and additions. Having taken this house for a term of years, I intend to make every effort to promote the convenience and comfort of travellers. The patronage of my friends and the travelling public is respectfully solicited.

January 1st 1853-1v.

OUTFITS FOR SANTA FE.

The subscriber respectfully informs the public of New Mexic , that at his establishment at WE-TPORT, MISSOURI, and by his agent at COUNCIL-GROVE,

Nebraska Territory, he is prepared to outfit and supply with every thing requisite for the journey to vanta Fe. companies or individuals, upon the most reasonable terms.

The believes that an acquaintance of many with the Santa Fe trade, will enable him to give general satisfaction in the business, ALBERT G BOONE,

Santa Fé, Dec. 24, 1852.—28-3m.

THE U. . Mail from Santa Fe to the States leaves regularly on the first day of each Passage during the summer months 40lbs of baggage allowed to each passenger.

WALDO, HALL, & CO. Proprietors.
Santa Fe, Sept. 18, 1852—1f

D. W. WHITTING

COMMISSIONER OF DEEDS, Pennsylvania, Connecticut, New Hampshire. Santa Fé, Jon. 1, 1852-1f.

EXECUTOR'S NOTICE.

L ETTERS lestance tary were granted the undersigned, epop the defate of Damasa Lonez dece sed, dated November 38th 1852, by the home rable Judge of Probate, for the county of Santa Fe; all persons indebted to said estate are re-quested to m ke immediate payment, and those having dem inds against the same must present them within the time prescribed by law, or they will be debarred.

MANUAL ALVAREZ,

Senta Fe, Feb. 19, 1853 .-- Itno 35.

BY AUTHORITY.

Public Acts of the Thirty-Second Congress

OF THE

INITED STATES.

1851 - 52CHAP. LXXXVII -- An Act to confirm to the State of Michigan certain Lands for saline Purposes. Be it enacted by the Senate and Honse of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the selection and location by the State of Michigen of the lands lying in said state, described as sections numbered two, three, four, five, eight, nine, ten, eleven, fourteen, fifteen, twenty-one and twenty-two, in township seven north, of range fourteen east, heretofore made under and by virtue of the fourth proposition contained in the first section of an act entitled "An act supplementary to the act entitled 'An act to establish the northern boundary line of the state of Ohio, and to provide for the admission of the state of Michigan into the Union, on certain conditions," approved June twenty-third, eighteen hundred and thirty-six, be and the same are hereby recognised as valid and confirmed to said state, in lieu of twelve other sections which were incorrectly noted as confirmations under said act, by reason of an erroneous interpretation given, at the General Land-Office, to the original list of selections.

Approved, August 25, 1852. CHAP, XCI -An Act to provide for executing the Public Printing, and establishing the Prices thereof, and for other Purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the joint resolution entitled "Joint Rescontractor; and he shall not accept any contractor which does at the same rate per page for any greater and tofore entered into with any printer and teen hundred and forty-six, be, and the same is hereby repealed.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That there shall be a superintendent of the public printing, who shall hold his office for the term of two years, who shall receive for his services a salary of twenty-five hundred dollars per annum, and who shall give bond with two sureties to be approved by the Secretary of the Interior, in the penalty of twenty thousand dollars for the faithful discharge of his duty under this law. The said superintendent shall be a practical printhe arts of printing and book-binding. and he shall not be interested directly or indirectly in any contract for printing for Congress or for any department or bureau of the government of the United States. The first superintendent under this law shall hold his office until the commencement of the thirty-third Congress, and the superintendents thereafter appointed shall hold their offices for two years, commencing with the first dny of the session of each Congress.

Sec 3. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of said superintendent to receive from the Secretary of the Senate and Clerk of the House of Representatives all matter ordered by Congress to be printed, and from the several chiefs of departments and heads of bureaus all matter ordered by them respectively, to be printed at the public expense, and to keep a faithful account of the same, in the order in which the same shall be received, in a book or books to be by him kept for that purpose. He shall deliver said matter to the public printer or printers in the order in which it shall be received, unless otherwise ordered by the joint committee on printing. He shall inspect the work, when executed by the public printer or printers, and shall record in a book or books, to be by him kept for that purpose, the dates at which the returns of said work are made and whether the same is executed in a neat and workmanlike manner, upon the paper furnished to the public printers by said superintendent, and the amount allowed by said superintendent for the said printing It shall be his duty to revise the execution of the public printing, to inspect the work when executed, and to see that the same is done with neatness and despatch; to report every failure or delinquency on the part of the public printer, and from time to time to report the said delinquencies to the joint committee of Congress on printing. He shall issue his certificate for the amount due to the public printer for such work as shall have been faithfully executed, which certificate shall be made payable to the public printer at the treasury of the United States, and shall not be as signable or transferable by indorsement or delivery to any third party. Said certificate of the superintendent shall be a sufficient voucher for the comptroller to pass, and for the trensurer, upon the order of the second comptroller, to pay the same. Sec. 4. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the said superintendent of the public printing to advertise annually in one or more newspapers of general circulation in the cities of Boston, New York, I hiladelphia, Baltimore, Washington, New Or-leans; Louisville, and Cincinnati, for the space of sixty days prior to the first of December, for sealed proposals to furnish the government of the United States all paper which may be necessary for the execution of the public printing, of quality and in quantity to be specified in the said advertisements from year to year. He shall open such proposals as may be made, in the presence of the President of the Senate and Speaker of the House of Representatives, on the first Tuesday after the first Monday of December annually, provided a Speaker shall have been elected, or as soon thereafter as a speaker shall have been cleefurnishing all of said paper, or such class thereof as may be bid for to the lowest bidder, whose sample, accompanying his bid, shall most nearly approximate to the quality of paper (size, weight, and texture all considered) advertised for by the said superintendent. The sample offered with the bid accepted shall be preserved by the said superintendent, and it shall be his duty to compare these with the paper furnished by the public gress," approved August third, eigh- aforesaid. It shall be the duty of the copies. superintendent of the public printing to Second. For reports of committees deliver the paper for the printing of the and the journals of both houses, with tions, to wit-United States upon the requisitions of indexes, and the executive documents charge him or them therewith; and as the President, reports from the executions and, two per centum. the public printer with the quantity us- nicated therewith, with indexes; resoed in the public service. It shall be lutions and other documents from State the duty of said superintendent to have legislatures; memorials, petitions, treathe requisitions of the printer and the ties, and confidential documents for the returns of paper by the printer balanced Senate; for composition per page, ocat least once in each year, and in default tavothereof to report the same to Congress ter, versed in the various branches of for such proceedings as Congress may direct. In default of any contractor fifty cents. under this law to comply with his contract in furnishing the paper in proper time and of proper quality, the superintendent is authorised to advertise for proposals, as hereinbefore provided, and ward the contract to the lowest bidder; and for any increase of cost to the government in procuring a proper supply of seventy cents; but the page of actavo paper for the use of the government, the sixe shall contain not less than one thou- dred and eighty sheets, and measuring > n the Circuit Court of the U. States for the District of Columbia. Sec. 5. And we'lt further enacted, That the public printer shall be required to execute each job of printing intrusted to him within thirty days from date of its delivery by the superintendent, except bills, reports, and joint res-olutions, which shall be returned as the Clerk of the House, or Secretary of the Senate shall require, unless, for good reasons shown, the superintendent of printing shall extead the time. And should the printer detain any matter, longer than thirty days, a deduction of five per centum shall be made by the superintendent, from the account of the printer, for such job, and additional depublic printer shall detain such matter withdraw it entirely, and shall employ another printer to execute the same with promptness, upon the terms provided by law; and in such case the public prin-> tendent, in the name of the U. States, ter shall not be allowed theretor. Sec. 6. And be it further enacted, That the superintendent of the public printing shall not be directly or indirecty interested in the business of the pubhe printing, or in any material to be used by the public printer, or in any contract to furnish paper to Congress or to any department or bureau of the govern- sizement of the United States For any violation of this provision the superintendent of the public printing shall forfeit his office, and may be indicted before the District Court for the District of Columbia, and if found guilty, shall of folding and stitching copies reserved be imprisoned in the penitentiary of the for binding, shall be made:-District of Columbia for any term not less than one nor more than five years, any sum from one thousand to ten thousand dollars. Sec. 7. And be it further enacted, That when any document shall be or-Congress, the entire printing of such ing; for every hundred copies, ten cents. document shall be done by the printer of that house which first ordered the same. And whenever the same person or the same firm shall be printer for confidence, for the wood both houses of Congress, and both houses shall order the same document to be printed. Sec. 8. And be it further enacted, not exceeding one hundred. That there shall be elected a public printer for each house of Congress, to do the public printing for the Congress for which circular letters, and miscellaneous prin-he or they may be chosen, and such ting ordered by Congress, not hereinted, and shall award the contract for printing for the executive departments before specifiedand bureaus of the government of the United States as may be delivered to him or them to be printed, by the superintendent of the public printing. The following rates of compensation shall be paid from time to time for such printing as may be ordered by Congress:-

First. For bills and joint resolutions-For composition per page, lifty cents. For presswork, folding, and stitching, for five hundred and eighty copies, thir-

the printing is returned and passed by tive departments, bureaus, and offices, the said superintendent, he shall credit and documents and statements commu-

For small pica plain, one dollar. For small pica rule, one dollar and

For brevier plain, one dollar and fifty

For brevier rule, two dollars. For nonpareil rule, three dollars and seventy-five cents.

For the composition of tables larger than octavo size, per one thousand ems, contractor in default and his securities sand six hundred ems when printed in twenty-four by thirty-eight inches; and shall be charged with and held responsible for the same, and shall be prose-matter shall be so printed, except expaper, weighing not less than forty-five cuted open their hand, by the superin- tracts, year and mays, and addenda, which shall be painted with brevier type.

ca, each page containing not less than one thousand six hundred ems, if the matter to be printed can be brought into pages of that size with that kind of type, so as to be read with facility and convenience. If it cannot, it shall be printed with brevier type, each page containing not less than two thousand eight hundred ems; and if it cannot be brought into a royal octavo page with breviertype, so as to be understood with facility, it shall be printed with nonpariel type, each page containing not less than four thousand two hundred ems; and when it cannot be brought into a royal octavo page with nonpariel so as duction of five per centum for an addi-tional detention of twenty days. If the ted with brevier type in a broadside, to be read with facility, it shall be prinshowing the whole table at one view, for sixty days, the superintendent shall and be so filled that it can be bound in a royal octavo volume.

> When matter is leaded, the composition shall be counted as if the matter were printed solid, and not leaded.

For presswork, folding, and stitching

of royal octavo size-For twelve hundred and fifty copies, thirty-two and half cents per page, and not exceeding fifteen hundred copies.

For presswork, folding, and stitching

ber not exceeding fifteen hundred copies.

The following deductions on account

Sec. 12. And be it further enacted,

For royal octavo size, per page, for each hundred copies, one quarter of a and in addition thereto, may be fined in cent; for each table larger than octave, the Senate and Speaker of the House. one quarter of a cent; and the following to be called the Joint Committee on the additional charge shall be allowed for Public Printing, which committee shall trimming, folding, and stitching, and in- have a right to decide between the suserting each map, chart, diagram, or perintendent of the public printing and dered to be printed by both houses of plat in the copies not reserved for bind-

> There shall be allowed for the presswork on treaties, reports, and other documents, when ordered to be printed in co: fidence, for the use of the Senate, at

For the presswork, folding, and stitchbe printed within three weeks of the ing of sixty-five copies, six cents per same time, composition shall be charged page, when of the royal netavo size, and but once for said document; and no sum one dollar perpage, for sixty-five copies, shall be paid to said printer for altering when the matter cannot be contained in the headings from the form in which he the royal octavo page in any type hereprinted them first to the form or forms inbefore specified; and allowance shall in which such document shall afterwards be made at the same rates for any greaternumber of copies than sixty-five, and Third. For tabular statements of the orders of the day, lists of yeas and nays,

For composition for plain work, per thousand ems, fifty cents.

For rule and figure work, fifty cents per thousand ems.

one hundred copies, per page-For royal octavo, or any smaller size, en cents.

For quarto post, twenty cents. For foolscap and any larger size, twenty cents.

ing the printing for each house of Con- not conform to the sample preserved as ter number not exceeding one thousand stitching additional numbers to the number usually ordered by Congress of matter included in the foregoing specifica-

When the number ordered exceeds the public printer or printers, and to of each house, embracing messages from five thousand and does not exceed ten

When the number exceeds ten thousand and does not exceed twenty thousand, five per centum.

When the number exceeds twenty thousand, forty per centum.

The presswork, folding, and stitching.

of all printing not herein provided for, shall be done by the ream-the rates shall be two dollars per ream when printed on one side, and four dollars per ream when printed on both sides - when any amount less than one ream is ordered, it shall be counted and settled for as one ream.

Sec 9. And be it further enacted, That the regular numbers of documents ordered by Congress shall be printed in actavo form, on paper weighing not less than fifty-six pounds for every four hunpounds for every four hundred and eighty slicets, and measuring twenty-four by All rule and figure work shall be prin-ted in royal octave form, with small pi-other species of printing ordered by Congress, may be of such size and quality as the superintendent of the public printing may deem suitable and proper.

Sec. 10. And be it further enacted That the public printer or printers may be required by the superintendent to work at night as well as through the day upon the public printing, during the session of Congress, when the exigencies of the public service require it.

Sec. 11. And be it further enacted, That the same prices shall be paid for rinting for the executive departments that are paid for printing for Congress, except for printing post-bills, which shall be printed on paper not less than sixteen by twenty-six inches, and for printing on parcha. There shall be paid for printing the post-bills at the rate of one dollar per thousand sheets, and at he rate of ten dollars per thousand for printing parchments; but nothing shall be allowed far altering post-bills when the alteration consists in the mere change of a postmaster's namer and nothing erein contained shall prevent the heads of executive departments from employing printers out of the city of Washingat the same rate for any greater number ton, to execute such printing for any of said departments as may be required for use out of Washington, when the same of each table larger than royal octavo can be executed elsewhere as cheap as at the rates herein specified, increased For twelve hundred and fifty copies, by the cost of transporting the printed one dollar and twenty-five cents per matter to the State or States where such page, and at the same rate for any num- matter may be required for use in the

That a committee, consisting of three members of the Senate and three members of the House of Representatives, shall be appointed by the President of the public printer in any dispute which may arise as to the propriety of the decisions of the superintendent making deductions on account of work which the superintendent may refuse to receive, or which, in his opinion, may not be done with proper despatch; as required by law; and the said committee shall pass upon the accounts of the superintendent of the public printing. Said committee shall have power to adopt such measures us may be deemed necessary to remedy any neglect for delay in the execution of the public printing, provise ded that no castract, agreement, or arrangement entered into by this committee shall take effect until the same shall have been approved by that house of Congress to which the printing belongs, and when the printing delayed relates to the business of both houses, until both houses shall have approved such contract or arrangements All motions to print extra copies of any bill, report, or other public document, shall be referred to the members of the Commit-For presswork, folding, and stitching tee on Printing from the house in which the same may be made:

See. 13. And be it further enacted, That all acts or joint resolutions conflicting with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed; but nothing herein con-tained shall be construed to authorise the cancelment of any contract now or bere-